
COUNTRY CLUB NEIGHBORHOOD

CAMANO ISLAND, WA.

Vacation Living Year-Round

On the east side of Camano Island, Camano Country Club offers natural beauty, breathtaking water and mountain views, and convenient access to local amenities. Camano Country Club homes for sale provide a sought-after waterfront lifestyle that feels like a year-round vacation, making this neighborhood one of the most desirable places to live on Camano Island

Camano Beach Community

Experience the perfect blend of vibrancy and tranquility at Camano Country Club on Camano Island. This welcoming waterfront community offers a friendly neighborhood atmosphere, pristine beach access, and breathtaking Puget Sound views. Relax on your private deck or enjoy peaceful shoreline strolls-where connected living meets quiet seclusion.

Puget Sound Natural Beauty

Enjoy sweeping views of Port Susan, the Cascade Mountains, and Mount Baker from your Camano Island waterfront home. Watch bald eagles and shorebirds soar above the bay—and maybe even spot a whale. East-facing homes capture stunning sunrises and vibrant sunsets without harsh glare. From calm mornings to dramatic coastal storms, the scenery delivers year-round Pacific Northwest beauty in every season

Easy Access to Amenities

Named after the original beachfront Camano Island Country Club, this Camano Island community offers a wide range of amenities designed for active island living. Walk to one of three community beaches, swim in the Country Club pools, or join a fitness class at the clubhouse, which is also available for private events. Conveniently located just 15 minutes from Stanwood, residents enjoy easy access to shopping, dining, and everyday essentials while embracing peaceful waterfront living.
