
FINISTERRE HEIGHTS

CAMANO ISLAND, WA.

Scenic Island Living

Finisterre Heights on Camano Island's north end offers stunning views of Skagit Bay and Mount Baker. This desirable neighborhood features beautiful homes and abundant wildlife, including deer, songbirds, and eagles. For those seeking a peaceful retreat, this community combines natural beauty with upscale living.

Eight Miles of Walking Trails

Explore the beauty of this neighborhood with 8 miles of scenic walking trails, perfect for getting outside and enjoying the fresh air.

Outdoor Spaces

This perfectly suited island neighborhood fosters a strong sense of community with a dedicated picnic area, open field for activities, and a playground for kids—ideal for outdoor gatherings

Mount Baker View

Experience the stunning views of Mount Baker and Skagit Bay, showcasing the beauty of Camano Island—a hidden gem in the Pacific Northwest. Enjoy the perfect island life without the long commute, just fifteen minutes from I-5.

