A Quaint Seaside Haven

The quiet, close-knit Iverson Beach community offers a peaceful retreat from everyday life. With classic beach houses refreshed with modern charm, it's perfect for those seeking beachside living. Enjoy summer barbecues, relax by the water, or take in year-round views of Livingston Bay's sparkling waters. Discover Iverson Beach real estate—an ideal spot for your coastal dream home.

A Unique Beach

Lona Beach, running parallel to Iverson Road at the heart of the neighborhood, stands out from other Camano Island beaches. During summer, low tides extend hundreds of feet into the bay, warming the returning water to ideal temperatures for swimming, jet skiing, and more. This unique feature makes Lona Beach a prime destination for water activities and relaxation alike.

Nature's Hidden Gems

Iverson Beach offers easy access to the Iverson Spit Trail Preserve, a hidden gem of natural beauty and history. Explore over 100 bird species, wander among driftwood at low tide, or enjoy family-friendly hikes like the charming Hobbit Trail. The preserve also boasts stunning waterfront views of the Sound and the Cascades, making it a must-see destination for nature lovers.
